She's practically one of us in that, through her, things are accomplished — for us! She was responsible for making homecoming a success; she teaches our boys the domestic way of life; she co-sponsors our cheerleaders; and most of all, she is our friend. Fun but serious, a perfectionist but a pleasant one, she's a person full of talent, charm and wisdom. These are the reasons why we, the Senior Class of 1975, wish to dedicate this edition of the ECHO to MRS. KATHY DICK.

As a beam of light passes through a prism and is separated
into a rainbow of colors,
so we,
being as one,
enter Ragsdale and are directed into a spectrum of involvement—
in classes,
in sports,
in club activities,
and
in relationships with one another.
The colors of the spectrum are not distinct
but blend into each other,
as we are a blend
of our own interests.
We do not limit ourselves
to one direction;

We ...

apply

in setting up
new bleachers,

cheer as the Tigers battle Southeast Guilford,

make tacos for Spanish class,

defend our title in volleyball,

read and analyze American talk things over with initiate new members into clubs,

teacher,

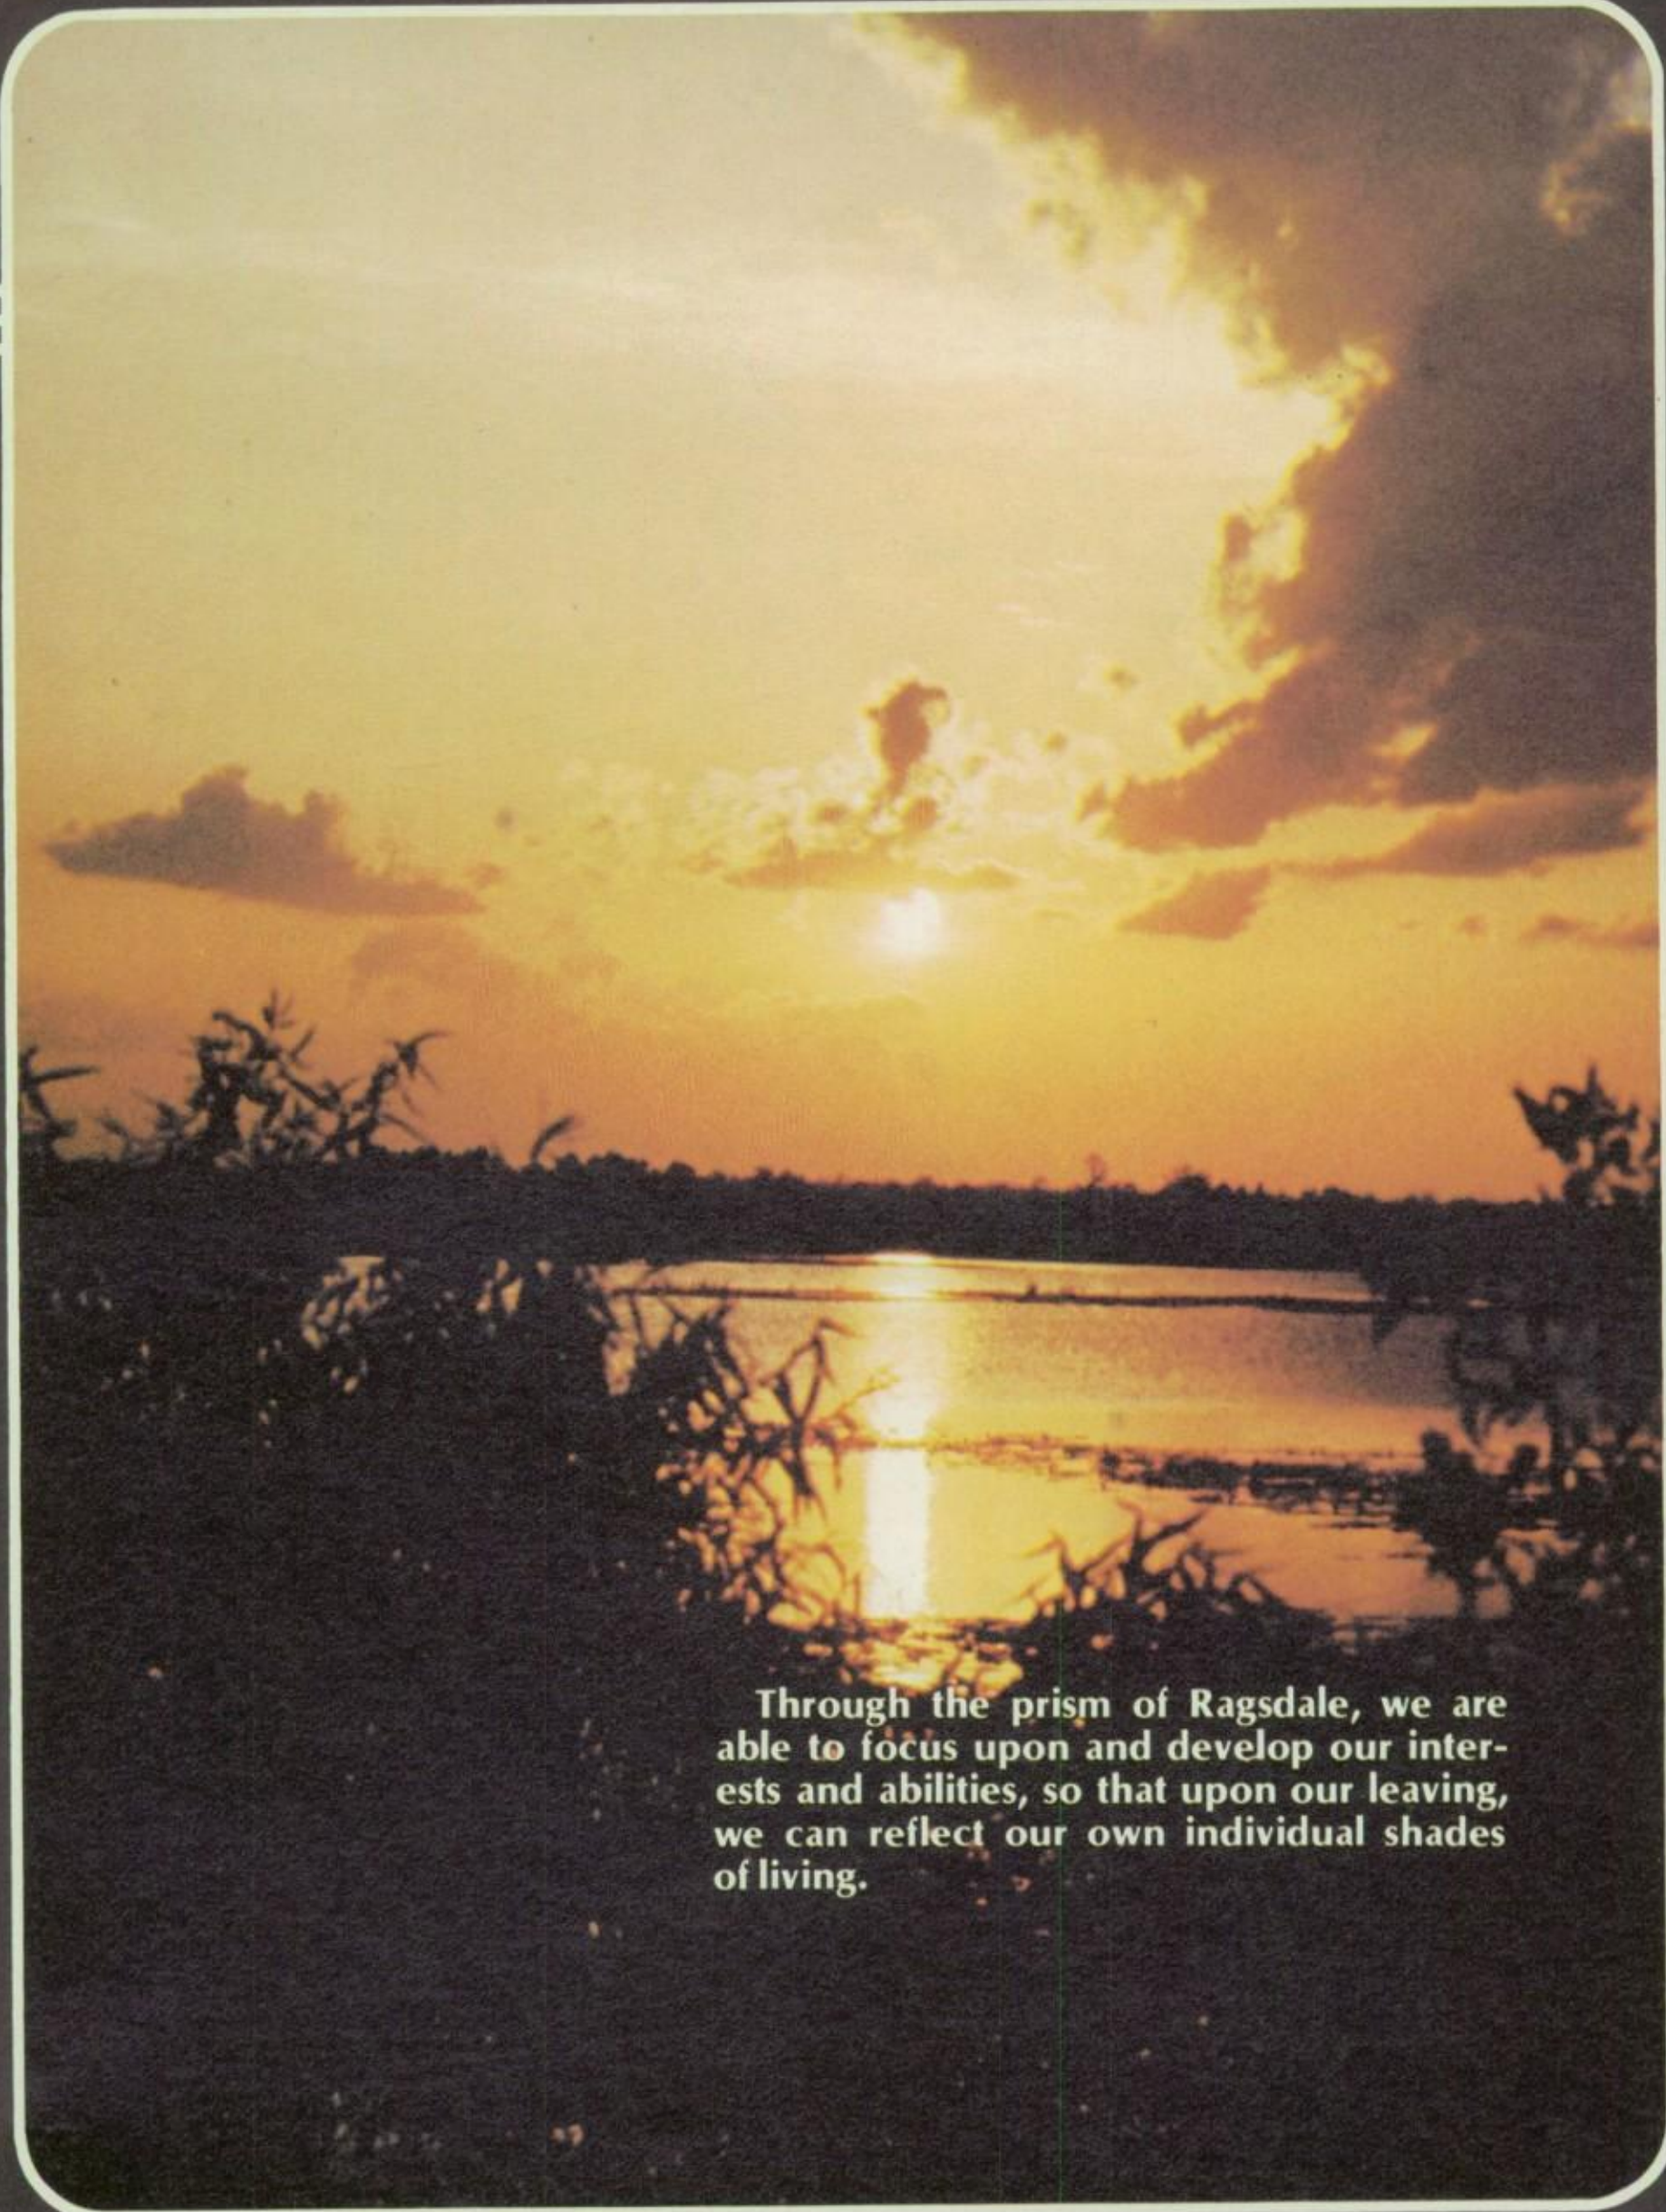

improvise situations in drama,

during lunch.

Through the prism of Ragsdale, we are able to focus upon and develop our interests and abilities, so that upon our leaving, we can reflect our own individual shades of living.

"Christmas Crisis"

An original play written and produced by the Drama I classes.

Mrs. Claus, Stephanie Sinclair, refuses to let Santa, Jerome Lewis, deliver his toys, as elves, Sandra Burns, Julie Allen, John Futrell, and David Smith, look on.

Darcy Edwards, Grandmother, tells a story of a childhood Christmas to the Szkastack family — Steve Knight, Arthur Watkins, Sherry Lundy, Melissa Patton, Mark Reed, Deirdre Welch, Sandra Kafitz, and Mark Webb.

John Futrell and David Smith add humor to the play.

White Christmas was observed as The Choral Music and Band performed.

Dayle Hunt, as Prologue, opens the plot with tales about Scrooge.

Dinner at the Crachit family's featured Elizabeth Foster, Sandy Crouch, Betsy Schultz, and Gus Paul.

Mrs. Mileski's Homeroom won the Student Congress door contest.

"A Christmas Carol"

A play based on Charles Dickens' novel produced by the Drama II class.

Chip Robinson, as Scrooge, listens to the Spirit of Christmas Future, Allison Tester.

HIGH POINT JUNIOR MISS CONTESTANTS

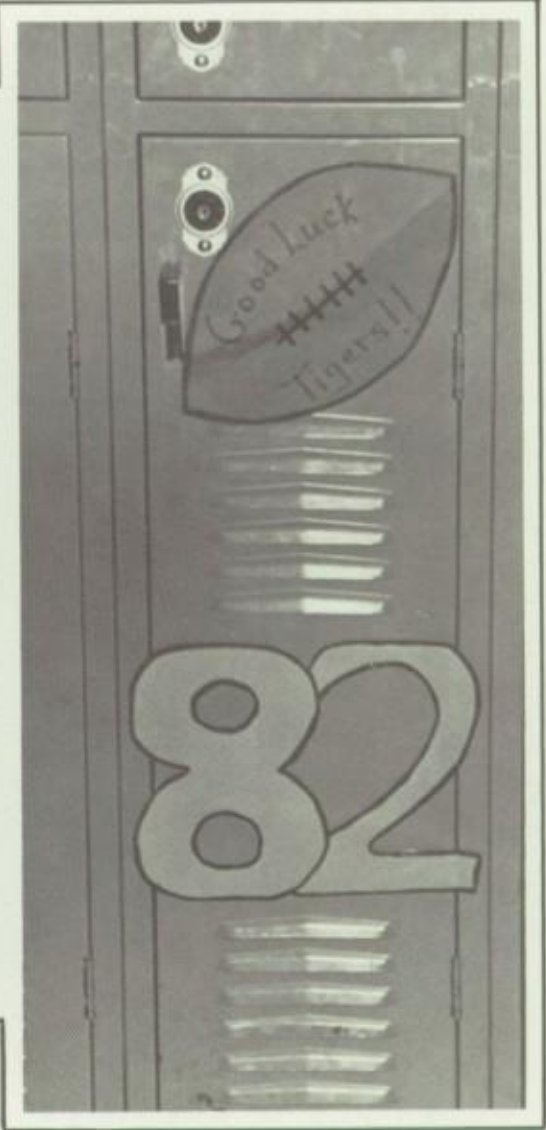

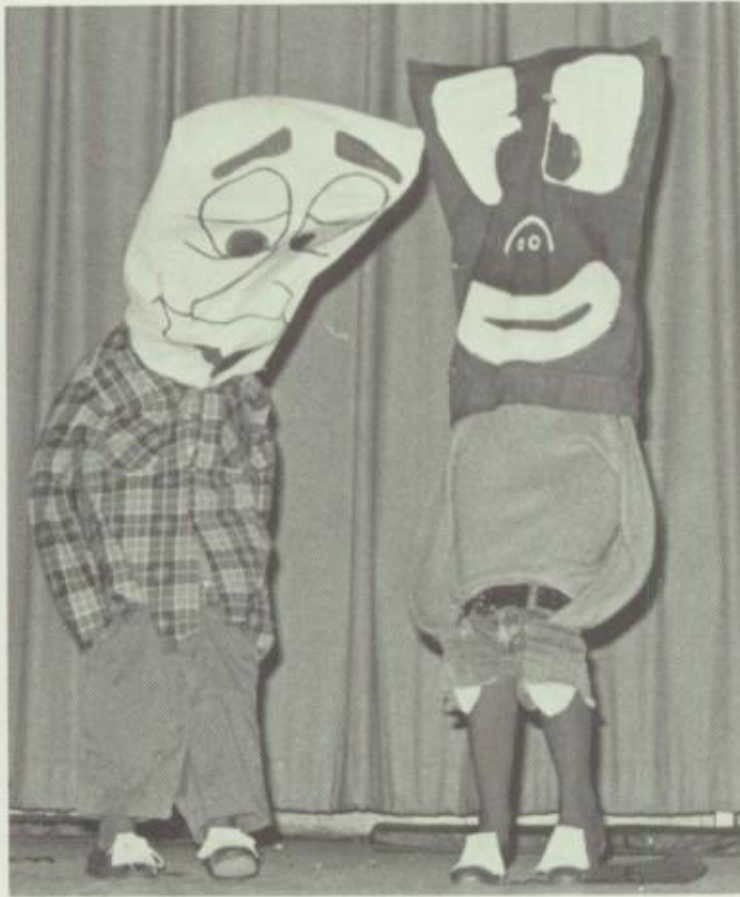

Although not a school activity, the Junior Miss Pageant has always had representatives from Ragsdale. We are proud of their achievements, and all of the girls should be congratulated for their hard work.

The State Football Championship week proved to be a week of apprehension, suspense, excitement, and preparation through the cooperation of the Student Body. Led by the cheerleaders and the School Spirit Committee, signs were put up, posters painted, lockers decorated, and paw prints laid on a path to the school. It was a week to be remembered.

"The Busters", Timmy Wyrick, Mike Gwyn, Fred Budwine (Head), Steve Siler, and Scott Fuller introduce a new cheer, "The Bump"!

Redhead Karen Hall may be RED from embarrassment after she sees this.

Someone may be GREEN with envy if Fred Budwine is caught with Sarah Walton and Sherry Cecil.

"Money makes the world go around!" This is the type of GREEN most people prefer.

Even the school has its rainy Monday BLUES with a little help.

"I've got the workin' in the Media Center, lookin' up research BLUES," says Miriam Nance.

Jerome Lewis says, "BLACK is beautiful," and Reggie Tice says, "But WHITE ain't bad!"

Colorful Chatter

RHS PRISMATIC

Randy Williard, like many students, has discovered the variety of opportunities available at Ragsdale which better develop a colorful personality.

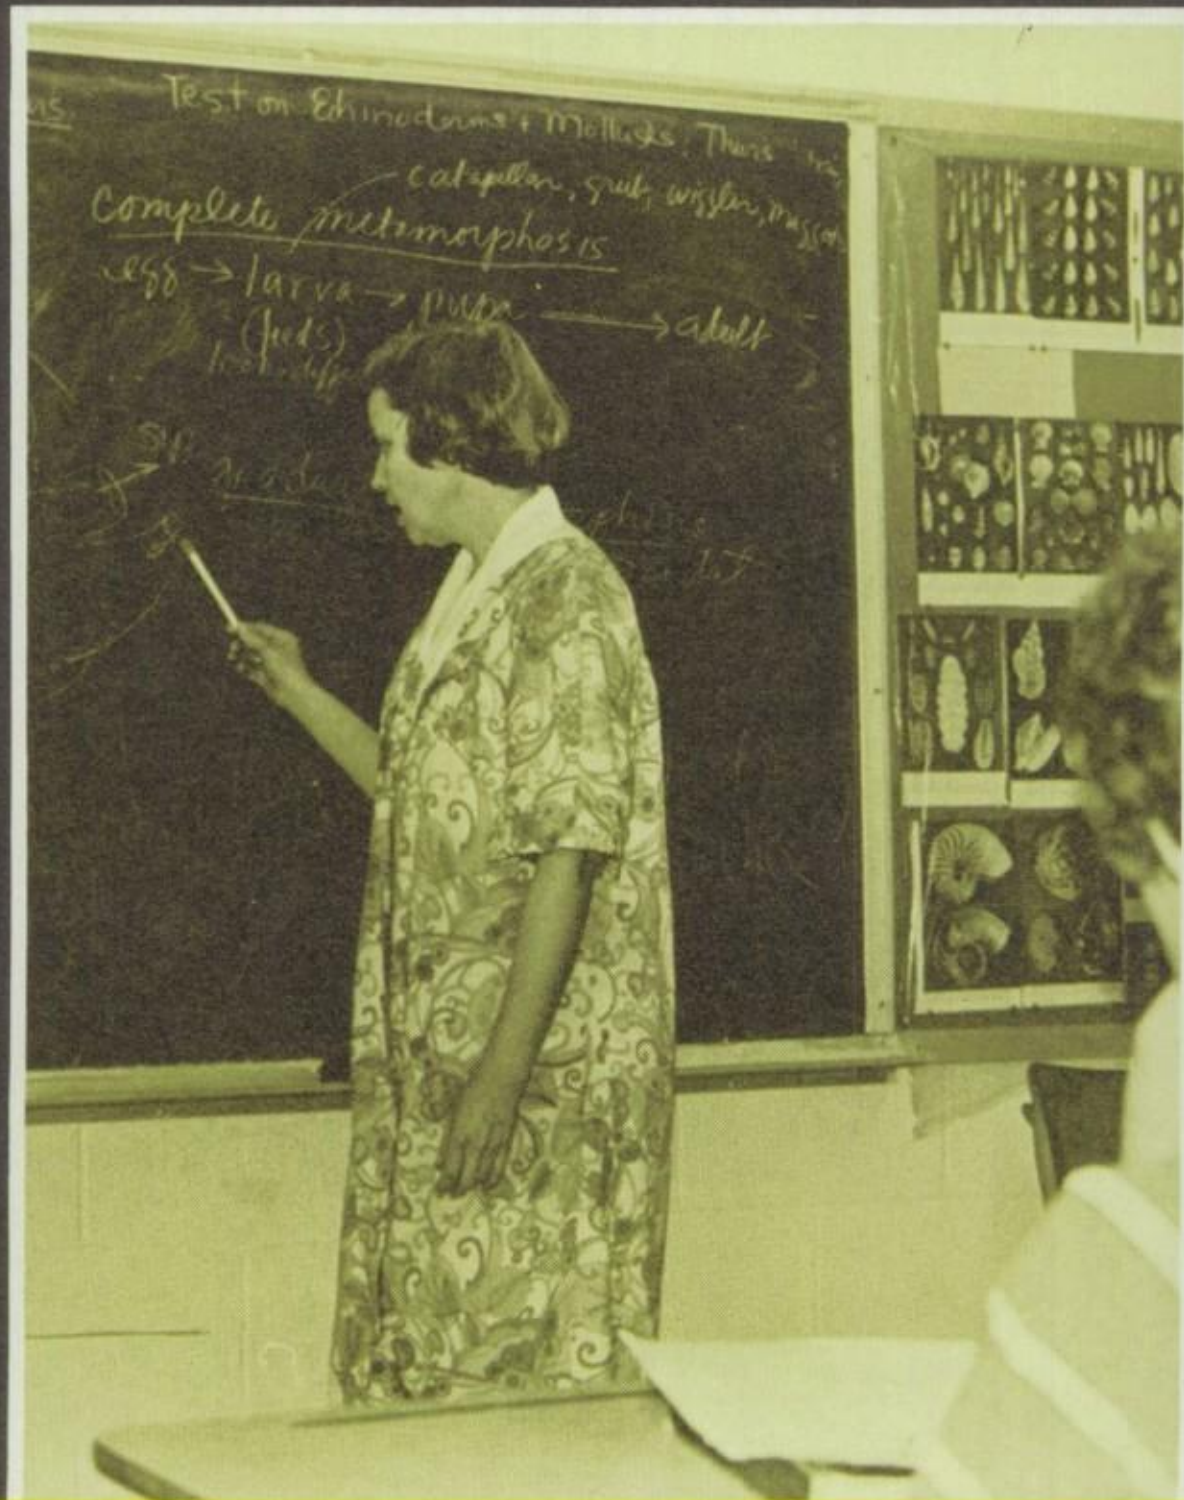

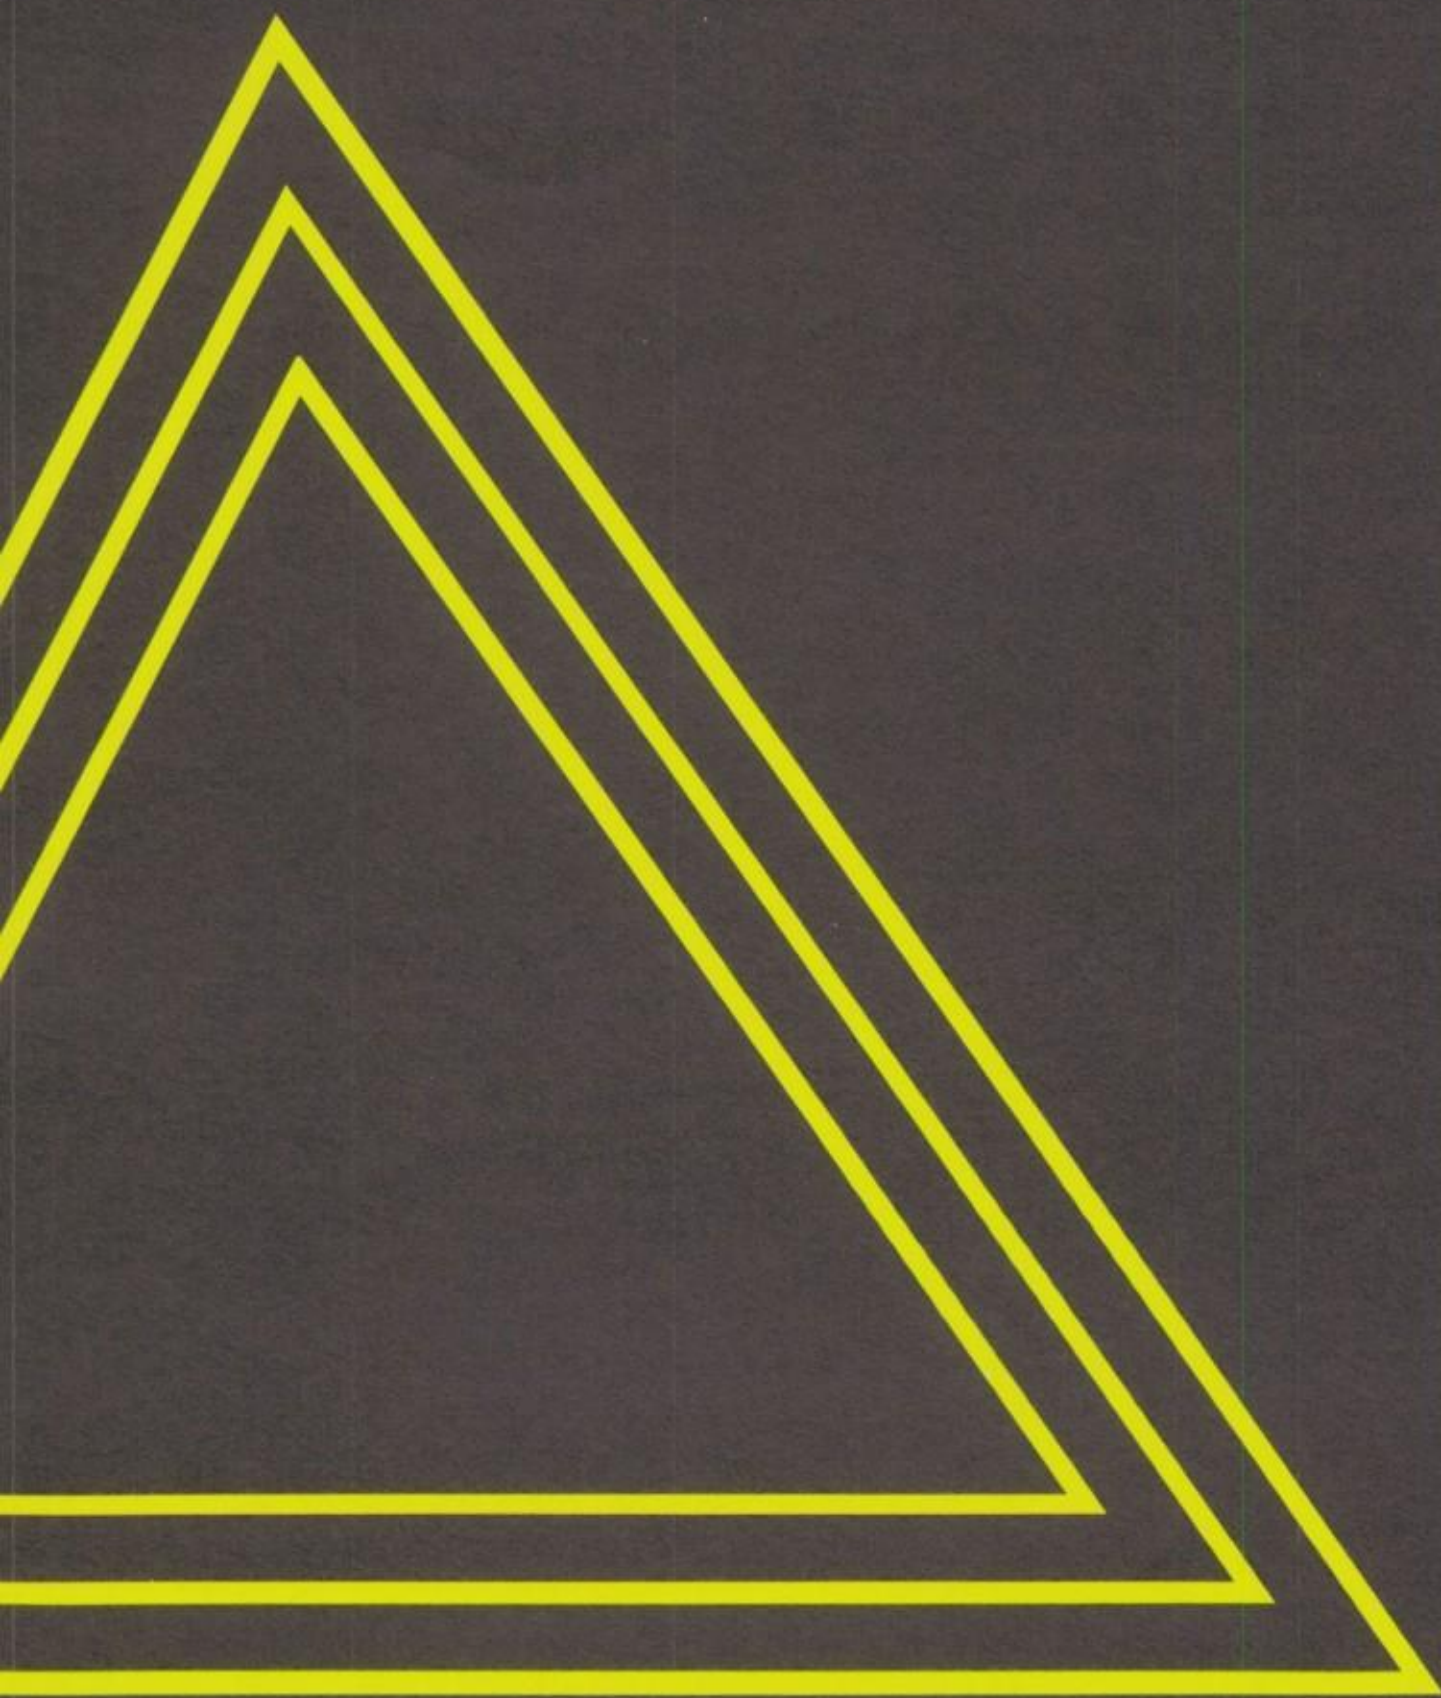

PARTICIPATION

Using Ragsdale as her prism, Sheree Marsh extends herself into many aspects of school life that make her spectrum of interests blend harmoniously.

Dick and Jane Discover Learning

Meet Jane
Meet Dick

Dick and Jane live in Jamestown. Today is a big day for Dick and Jane. They are beginning school at Ragsdale High.

Dick and Jane said goodbye to Spot and Puff and got on the big yellow school bus. When they arrived at Ragsdale, they met a nice lady named Mrs. Lucy Counselor.

“Good Morning,” said Mrs. Counselor.

Other students wait for help from Mrs. Counselor.

“I will help you decide what classes to take at Ragsdale. Why don’t we take a walk and look at some of the classes.”

“Good,” said Dick.

“Good,” said Jane.

So they walked down the hall together.

“Look Dick!” said Jane. “Look at all the pretty pictures.”

“I wish I could make pictures like that,” said Dick.

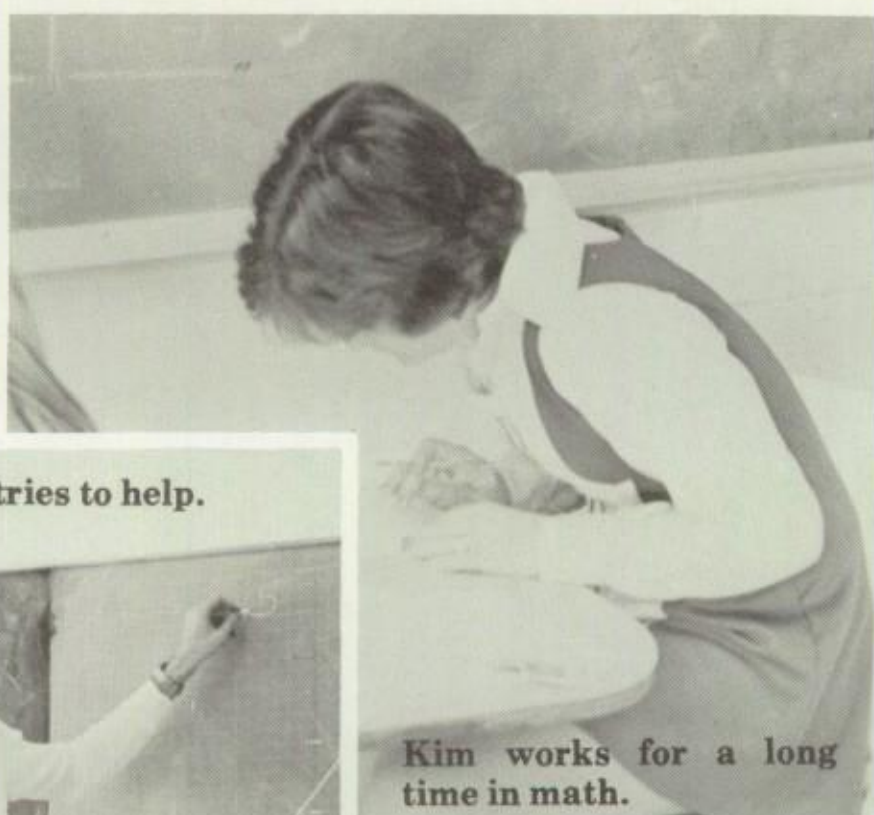

“The students did all of those pretty pictures with paint,” said Mrs. Counselor. “They also draw with crayons, chalk, and ink. Sometimes they make statues out of plaster. These statues are called sculptures. They have a good time in art class. They learn a lot too.”

“Some of the children will want to take a class of arithmetic,” said Mrs. Counselor. We have arithmetic with letters and arithmetic with lines. We have the right arithmetic for every person. Not too hard, not too easy, but just right.”

“I do not like arithmetic,” said Dick and Jane together.

Kim works for a long time in math.

Mr. Gaines tries to help.

“Some of our children do not like it either,” said Mrs. Counselor, “but everyone must know how to count.”

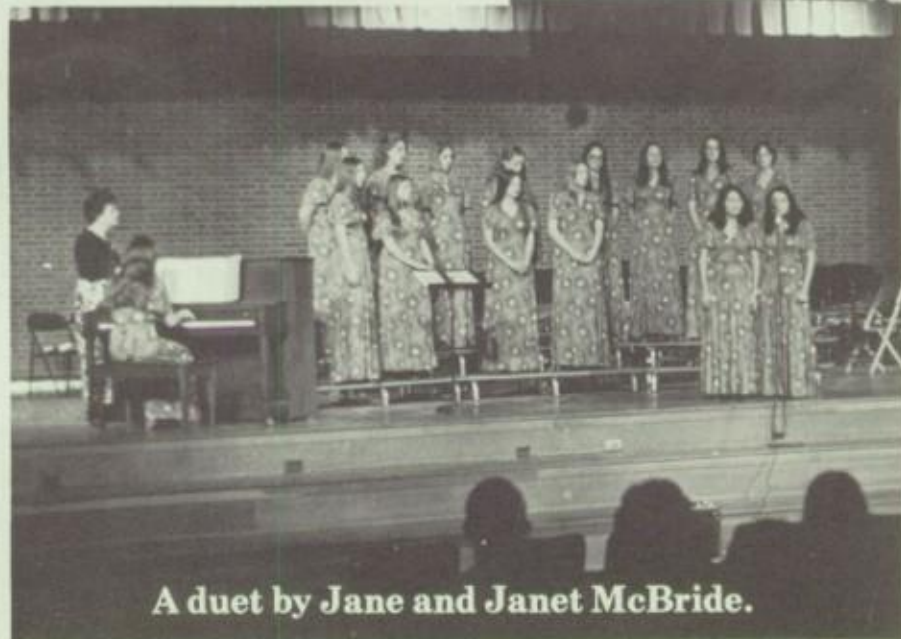

“We know how to count,” said Dick and Jane.

The drums seem to take over.

Playing the tuba is a tiresome thing.

A duet by Jane and Janet McBride.

“Now,” said Mrs. Counselor, “we are going to go listen to the boys and girls in the chorus sing a song. After they have finished, we can go see the band.”

“They sing pretty songs,” said Jane. “Maybe I can learn to sing like that.”

“Let’s go,” said Dick. “I want to see the big drum and the trumpet. I like the band best of all.”

“Okay,” said Mrs. Counselor, with a smile. “We will go see the band now, Dick.”

“Listen,” said Jane.
“Listen to those funny words. What are those children saying?”

“They are learning to talk like the people in France talk,” said Mrs. Counselor.
“Across the hall, the teacher is talking like the Spanish people talk.”

“I know how to talk in Spanish,” said Dick.
“Say it,” said Jane.

“Yes,” said Mrs. Counselor, “tell us.”
“Adios,” said Dick.
“Adios means good-bye in Spanish.”

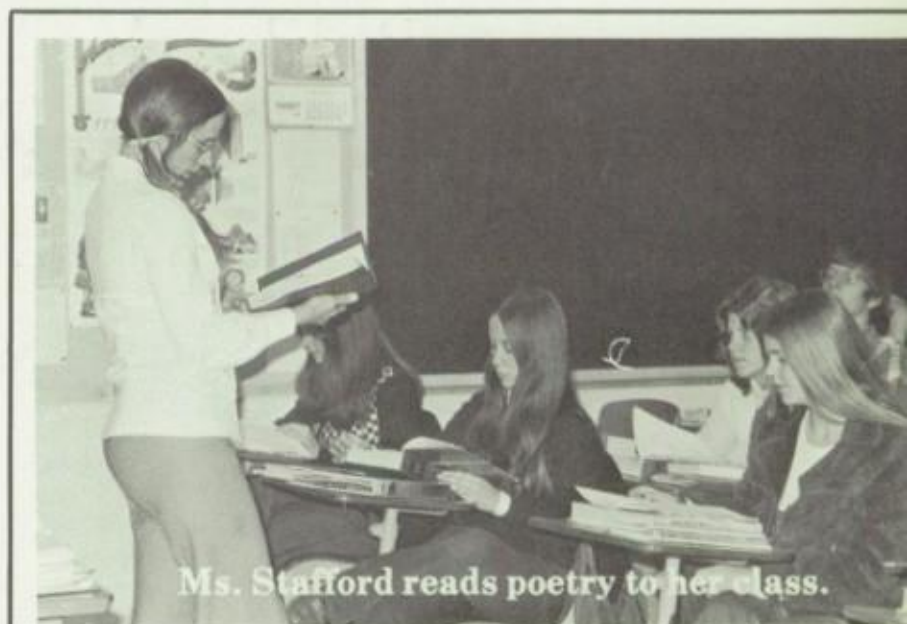

“Good, Dick,” said Jane.
“Good, Dick,” said Mrs. Counselor.

Mrs. Counselor said, "All the children at Ragsdale must take a class of English every year. Some of the children read spooky stories, some read Bible stories, and some read sad stories. There are many different kinds of stories for children to learn about."

"I like to read stories," said Jane.

Mrs. Counselor said, "This year children can learn to put on plays as their English class. These students have already put on two Christmas plays."

Ms. Stafford reads poetry to her class.

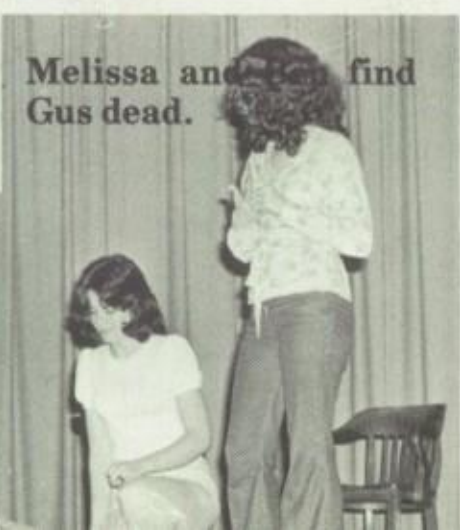

Mrs. Smith talks to her class about the term paper.

"I would like to pretend to be a policeman" said Dick. "That would be fun."

Val dresses up like a "redneck".

Melissa and Gus find Gus dead.

“Listen Jane,” said Dick. “Listen to all the typewriters. The students in this class can type very fast.”

“Yes,” said Mrs. Counselor, “they also learn how to write in a new way called shorthand.”

Cindy practices her shorthand.

These children may someday help a business man in his office. They are learning things that will help them get a job when they are older.”

The typing room is busy.

“Oh,” said Jane. “How I wish I could type fast like these students. That would be fun. I could type a story about Spot.”

“This next room is like a big, big kitchen,” said Mrs. Counselor. “This is the home economics room. In this room teachers teach girls and boys how to sew and cook. The boys and girls also learn about nutrition. Most of the children like this class.”

Time to put the bread in the oven.

Gloria shows her good food.

“Not me,” said Dick. “I do not want to make a fancy apron. That would not be fun.”

“I would like to make cupcakes,” said Jane. “That would be fun. Fun, fun, fun. I could make cupcakes for Dick.”

Eat up!

“That would be good,” said Dick. “Good, good, good.”

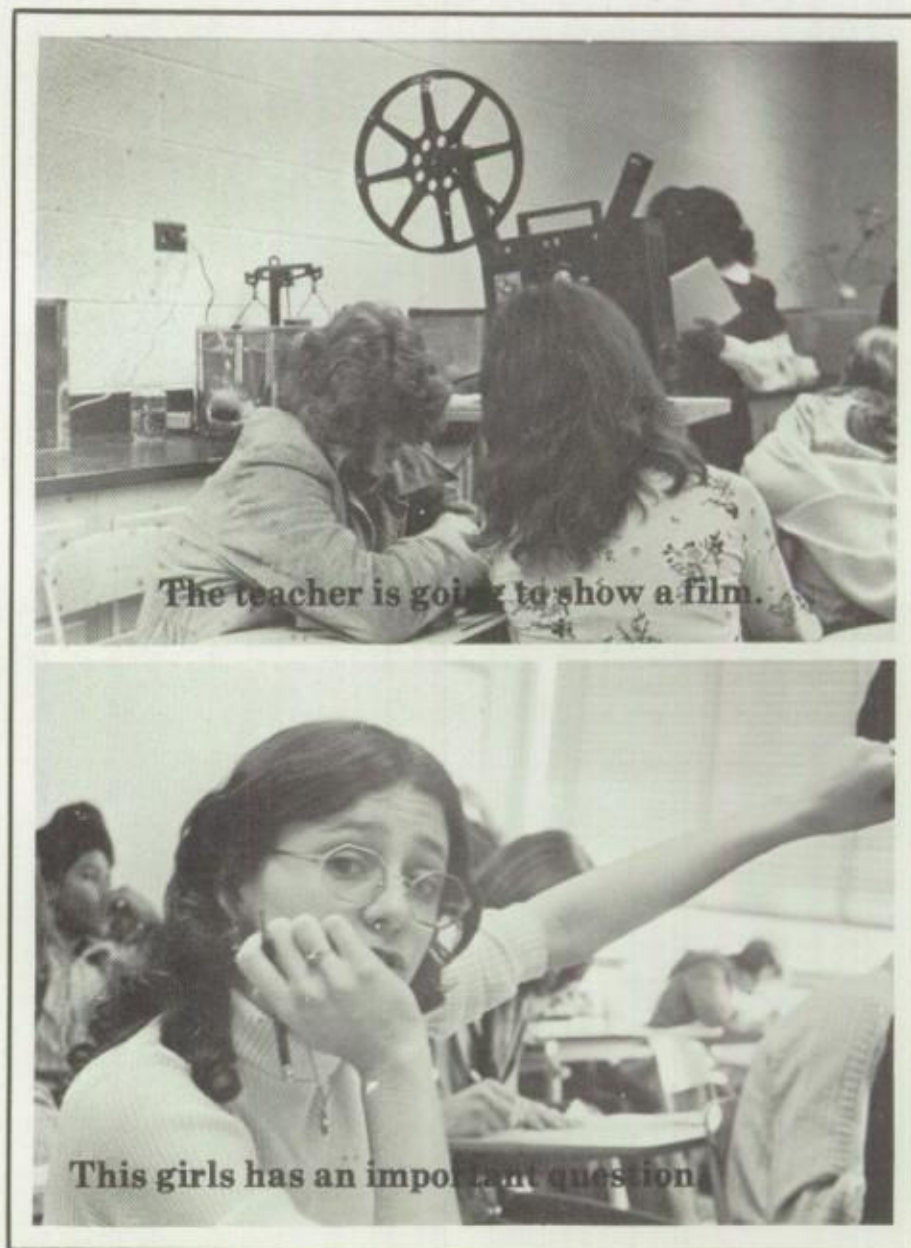

“Now,” said Mrs. Counselor, we will see some of our science classes. We have some classes of science where the children can see the inside of an animal.”

“Look Dick,” said Jane. “Look at Puff. Oh poor Puff. Poor, poor Puff.”

“Silly Jane,” said Dick. “That is not Puff. Silly, silly Jane.”

Mrs. Counselor said, “In this science class you can learn about chemicals and how to mix them.

“Science classes would be fun,” said Dick.

“At Ragsdale we have many many classes that teach the students how to work in the grown-up world,” said Mrs. Counselor. “The teachers show the children how to connect wires to make light, how to build houses, how to draw plans for new buildings, how to fix cars and many other things.”

“Oh,” said Dick, “see the boy looking at the car. Is the car broken?”

Can the boy fix the car? My airplane was broken once and Father fixed it. I think that boy could fix my airplane too.”

Girls sometimes watch the boys play.

Volleyball is a fun game!

Returning the ball in ping-pong.

“This big room is called the gymnasium,” said Mrs. Counselor.

“This is where the boys and girls play games inside. They play fun games like ‘Kill’”.

“Kill,” said Dick. “That does not sound like a game.

“Yes,” said Mrs. Counselor, “it is a funny name. But the boys and girls have fun playing it.”

Mrs. Counselor said, “social studies is a class that many children will want to take.

We have very many different kinds of social studies. We can learn about people in other lands or we can learn more about the people in the United States.

Some social studies classes teach the students about your brain and what it can make you do. Others teach you about pollution and why it is bad.”

“Oh,” said Jane, “I will want to take a social studies class.”

Ms. Cox listens to her student's question.

“There are so many classes to take,” said Jane. “I will never be able to choose.”

“And,” cried Dick, “they are all so interesting. Mrs. Counselor, can you help us?”

Glancing through the blinds between classes.

“I will help you,” said Mrs. Counselor.

“I will help you schedule your classes.”

Dick and Jane filled out schedule cards. Now they were ready to begin high school.

“Thank you, Mrs. Counselor,” said Dick.

“Thank you, Mrs. Counselor,” said Jane.

Dick and Jane waved goodbye to Mrs. Counselor. They got on the big, yellow school bus.

Voted MOST VALUABLE SENIOR, RICKY ADAMS was chosen by his classmates because of his many contributions to Ragsdale.

MAURICE DANA was selected by the Class of 1975 to be the recipient of the CITIZENSHIP AWARD presented by the Greensboro Civitan Club. Maurice has also distinguished himself as a Morehead Scholar of 1975.

ALAN JOHNSON received one of two scholarships presented by the BETA CLUB this year.

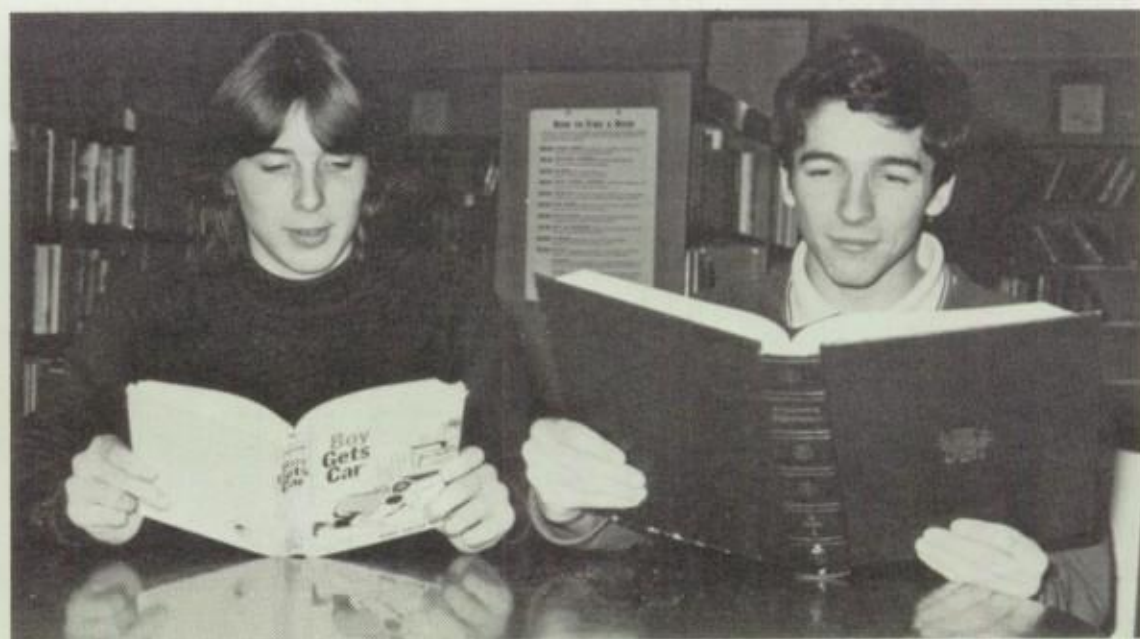

JIM OLSON was also awarded a scholarship by the BETA CLUB.

DIANE NORMAN won the SEDGEFIELD WOMAN'S CLUB SCHOLARSHIP.

BEN CLARK and MAURICE DANA were this year's NATIONAL MERIT finalists.

The Senior Class nominated KAREN HALL as this year's DAR GOOD CITIZEN.

The title BETTY CROCKER HOME-MAKER OF AMERICA was won by LISA COE.

Ragsdale's delegate to the PRESIDENTIAL CLASSROOM held in Washington, D.C. was KAROL BRYANT.

This year's representative to BOYS' STATE was RANDY WILLIARD. The week of activities was held at Wake Forest.

KAREN HALL, CINDY WINSLOW, and HEIDI BEHREND'S represented Ragsdale at the 1974 session of GIRLS' STATE which was held at UNC-G.

Drucilla Marlowe, Ellie Chappell, Chris Williams, Sandy Trotter, Steve Siler, Lee Vaughn, Craig Mitchell, Pam Wood, Julia Puett, Rhonda Cole, Paige Duncan, Karen Gaston, Steve Knight won first place awards in the Sedgfield Women's Club Fine Arts Festival.

Donna Jarrett and Dallas McClain were chosen as this year's Outstanding Business Students.

Lyn Hazelton, David Frank, Danny Feroe, Mark Smith, Debbie Newby, Tammy Gambrell, Dallas McClain, and Eddie Harden prepared manuals for the State DECA Competition.

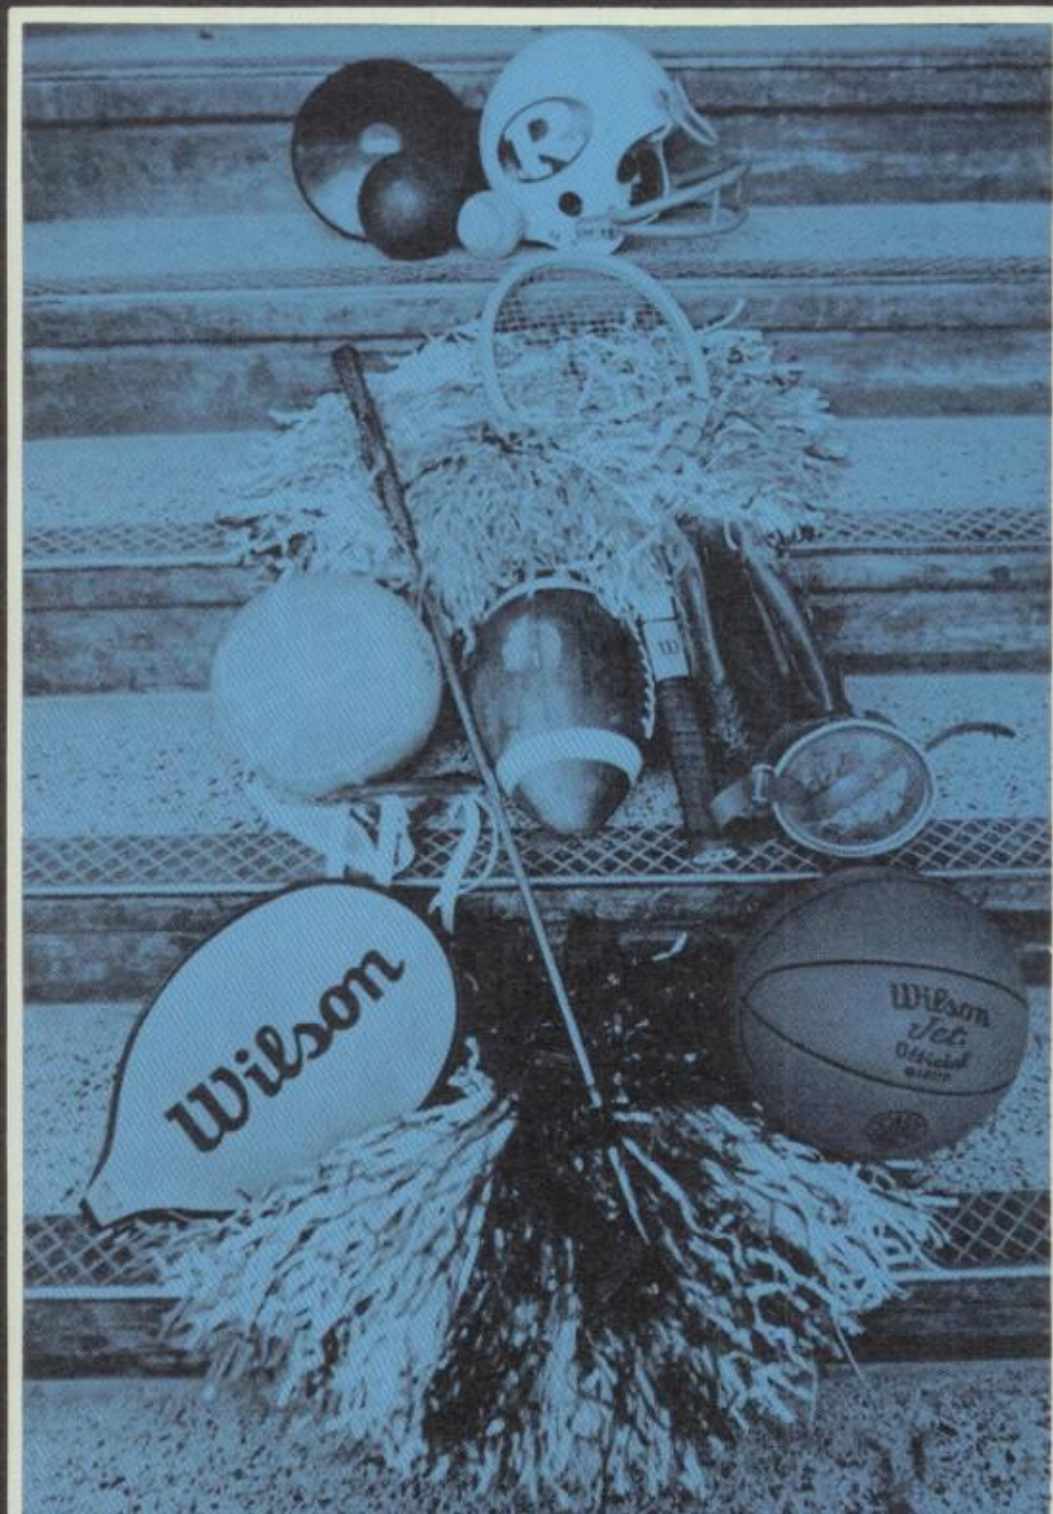

The Hi IQ Team: Maurice Dana, Greg Eanes, Karol Bryant, Joel Johnston, and Diane Norman, coached by Ms. Cox advanced to the play-off rounds of the Hi IQ Bowl which was televised on WFMY-TV.

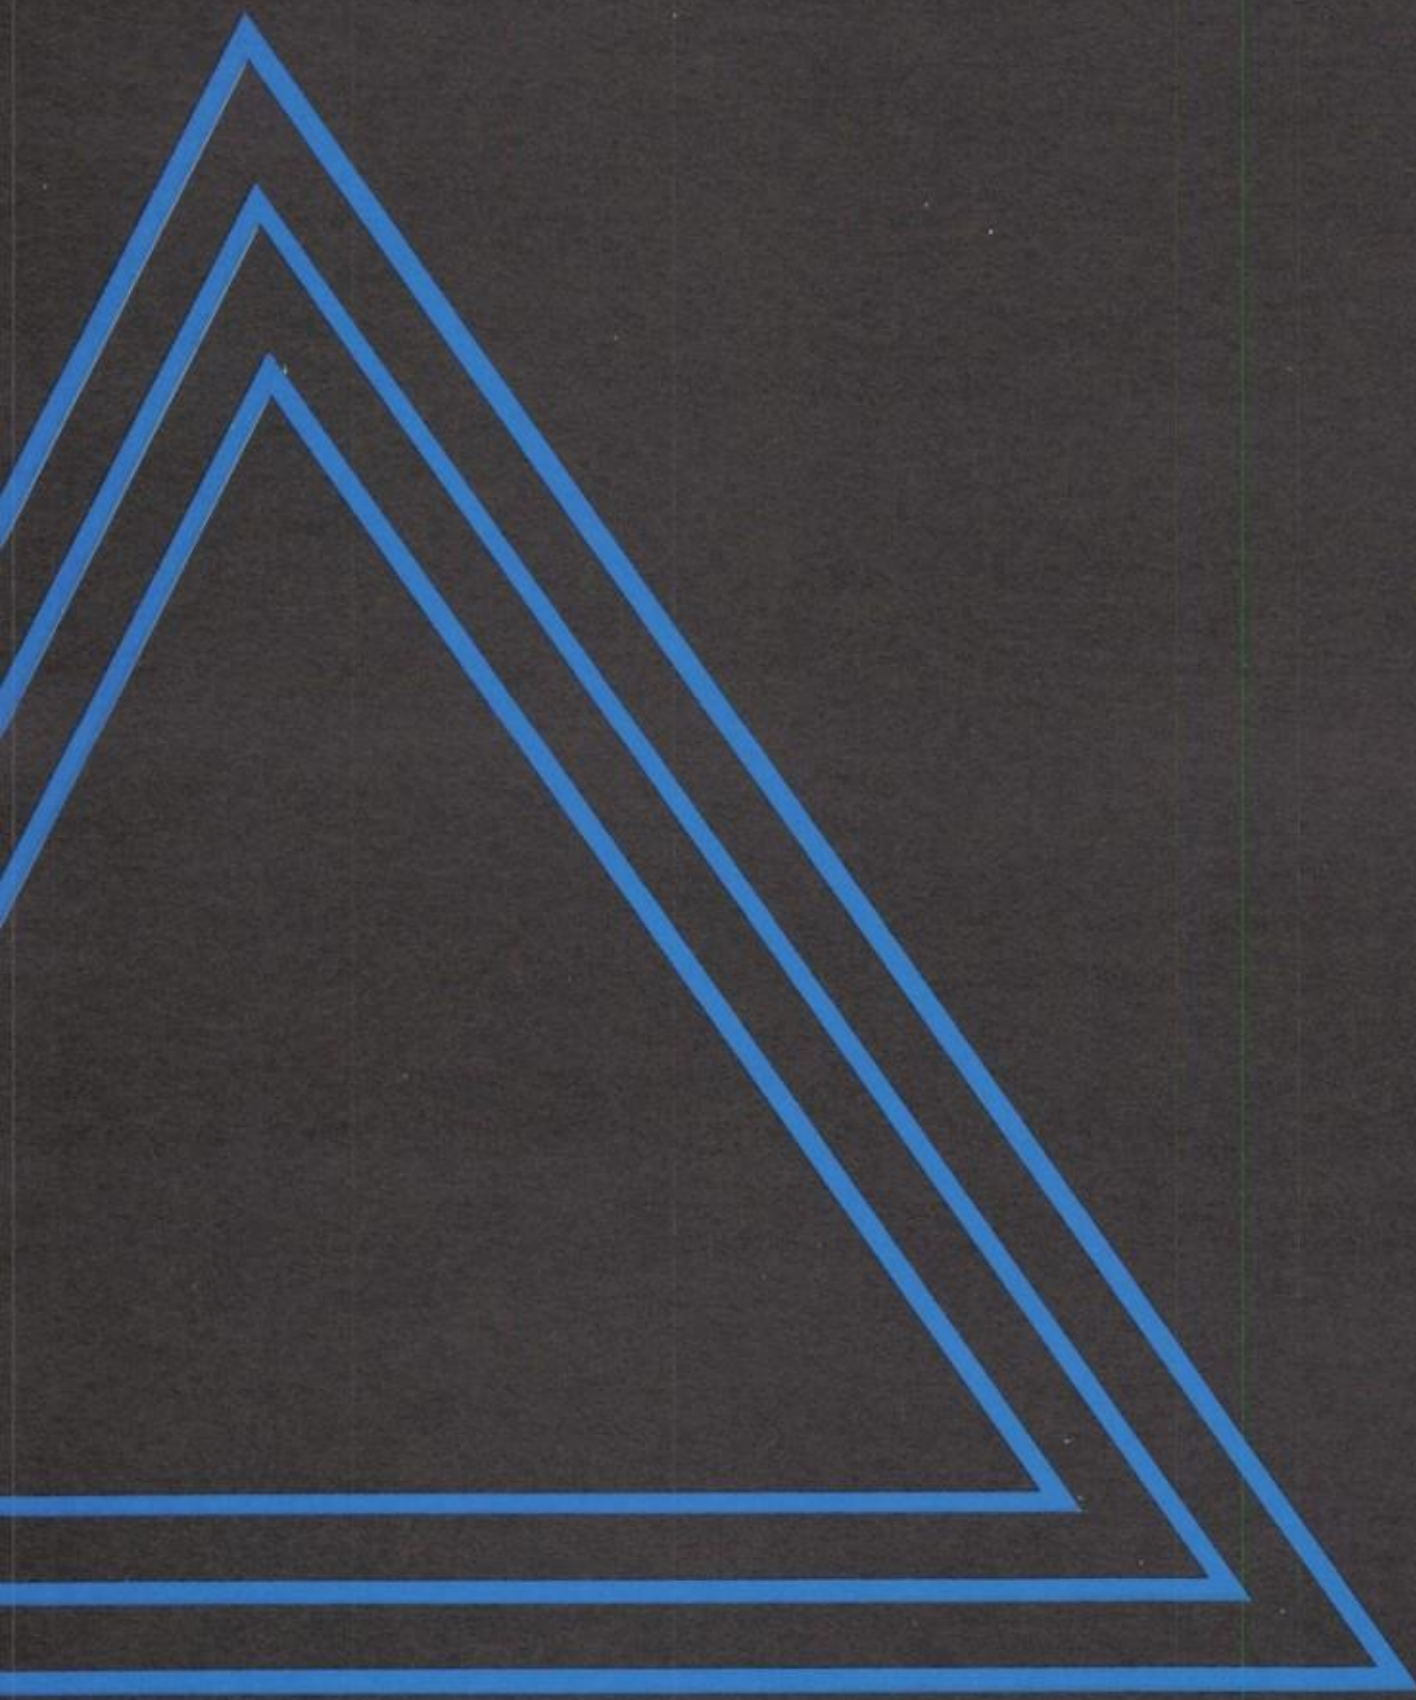

Jane and Janet McBride have certainly shown us all the meaning of courage and determination — and most of all, the meaning of friendship. With the constant encouragement of their brother Steve, Jane and Janet have attended Ragsdale to complete their high school educations.

Marta Maria Hernandez and Elaine Silva Guillarducci, exchange students, have charmed Ragsdale with their warm smiles and glowing personalities.

Sports

RHS IS AVENGED: EARNs SOLE

Awesome, super, relentless, fierce, and great were just a few of the words used to describe our Ragsdale Tigers this year. Sportswriters used all of these adjectives and more as the Tigers' quest for the State 3-A Football Championship proved to be successful.

When practice began in the late summer, the players had one common goal in mind. This goal was to win! As the season progressed, few people had any doubts that they would achieve this goal.

They did it in superb fashion, rolling up one lopsided score after another. After several easy victories, the Tigers faced a supposedly strong Southern Alamance team; however, the Tigers outscored them 28-7. This game increased their momentum and sparked the trek to the long-awaited championship. From here, no team could match the strength of the Tigers, and RHS brought a 9-0 record to Western Guilford to battle with the Hornets for the Mid-State West crown and the right to go into the state play-offs. In that game, the Tigers got off to a blazing start that completely demoralized the outclassed Hornets and finished them off with a 42-13 score.

With yet another Mid-State Conference championship under their belts, the Tigers' first opponent in the playoffs was Eastern Alamance, a team Ragsdale had thoroughly trounced during the regular season. Sparked by the versatile play of Senior Halfback, Harold Odum, this game proved to be no different from their first meeting as the Tigers came away with a resounding 40-12 victory.

A talented Maiden High School team came to Jamestown next, but their hopes were short-lived as the Tigers pounded them 41-8. Undaunted by an early Maiden score, Ragsdale took advantage of some breaks and came back strong behind the running of Ricky Adams. Once again the Tigers had shown the opposition who was boss!

The long-awaited trip to the mountains proved to be the toughest game of the year for Ragsdale. They were to face a vastly under-rated Pisgah High School team, which had to be the best 7-4-1 team in the state. From start to finish, the game was a defensive battle. The Bears scored first on a 93 yard drive that ate up much of the clock. But on the ensuing kickoff, Roscoe Friday gave the Tigers fine field position with a brilliant run. From there, a Ricky Adams sprint made it first-and-goal with time running out in the first half. With one second remaining, John Turner found Tight End, Alan Johnson, alone in the end zone for a touchdown to tie the game. This gave the Tigers inspiration as they went to the locker room, and they came out snarling in the second half. The Ragsdale defense shut off the

POSSESSION OF AAA CROWN

Bears, and the Tigers got deep in Pisgah territory midway through the fourth quarter. On fourth down, Barry Sikes drilled a 23 yard field goal to put the Tigers ahead 10-7. This was all they needed as they held Pisgah scoreless the rest of the game, to win 10-7. The long ride home seemed much shorter. This victory pushed the Tigers to a showdown with the Cougars of Ahoskie.

This game for the State Championship received state-wide attention. Both teams entered the contest with impressive credentials. The stadium was jam-packed as the teams prepared to do battle. But the anticipated close game failed to materialize. The Tigers scored first, and with the aid of some costly Cougar mistakes, went on to defeat Ahoskie 34-0. With this final victory, the North Carolina State 3-A Football Championship was brought to its rightful home — Ragsdale High School, thus fulfilling the team's goal for the year and erasing the bitter memories of last year's Co-championship.

The Tigers' successful season can be attributed to many reasons. The skillful coaching of Richard Kemp, and his able assistants, Rick Larrick, Larry Dunn, Jerry Haney, and Mike Raybon blended talent and hard work to produce this championship year. Each player deserves much credit. It took a lot of determination to withstand a tiresome month of hot, summer practices plus seemingly endless "hump" days. These players had a spirit of togetherness that will long be remembered at RHS.

The teams' spirit inspired the already avid supporters. Not only was there more community support than ever before, but the spirit shown by the Student Body was unsurpassed in the history of Ragsdale. Slogans, banners, and posters decked the halls and the cheerleaders worked extra hard to stage successful pep rallies. Each student should be proud of his part in the success of this year's team.

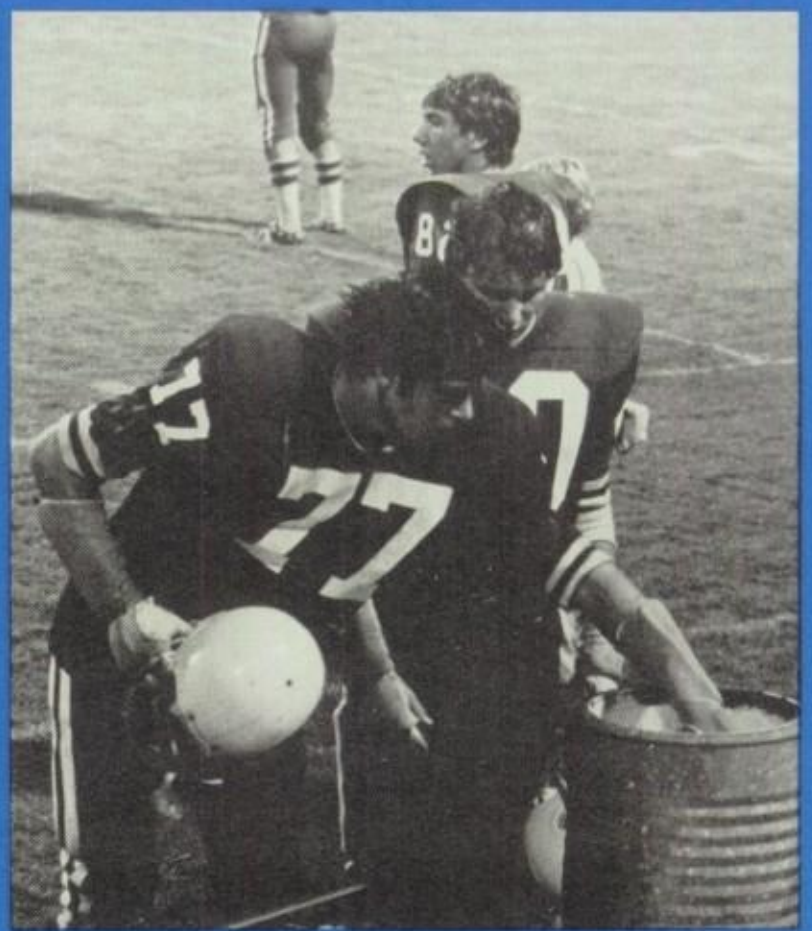

The Boosters' Club also deserves mention. They put many hours of hard work into the program. From selling advance tickets to selling programs, the Boosters' Club was there all the time, letting the Tigers know that they too, were behind them.

Talent, coaching, determination, support, and togetherness all go into the anatomy of a winning football team. The Ragsdale Tigers of 1974 had these characteristics to the highest degree.

Since Ragsdale is leaving 3-A next year to enter 4-A competition, each person can look back on this year with satisfaction and say, "What a great way to leave the 3-A ranks — as State Champions!"

Outstanding line play opened many holes for the Tiger running backs this year. These linemen worked hard each day to become more prepared than their opponents. It is easy to see how Ragsdale always won the "battle of the trenches." Pictured (above left) are tackles Barry Sikes and Mitchell Johnston. Pictured (above) are guards Grant Nichols and Ronnie Misenheimer.

Ragsdale's defense put fear in the hearts of their opponents. Gang tackling was one of their biggest assets. Above, (against Allen Jay), is a good example of the mighty Tiger defense.

In the conference championship game against Western Guilford, the Tiger offense unleashed its potent attack early in the game. Right, halfback Harold Odum rambles for one of the many long runs of the night.

Mixing a high-powered offense with a stingy defense, the Tigers rolled up 14 consecutive victories to extend their non-losing streak to 27-0-1. Top to bottom, Roscoe Friday, Gary Hingleton, and Bobby McLean are three examples of the Tigers' rugged brand of football.

COACH RICK LARRICK, head of the defensive unit, is famous for his sideline antics — stomping, signaling, and stripping.

LARRY DUNN served as the offensive backfield coach and co-ordinator of the infamous goon platoon.

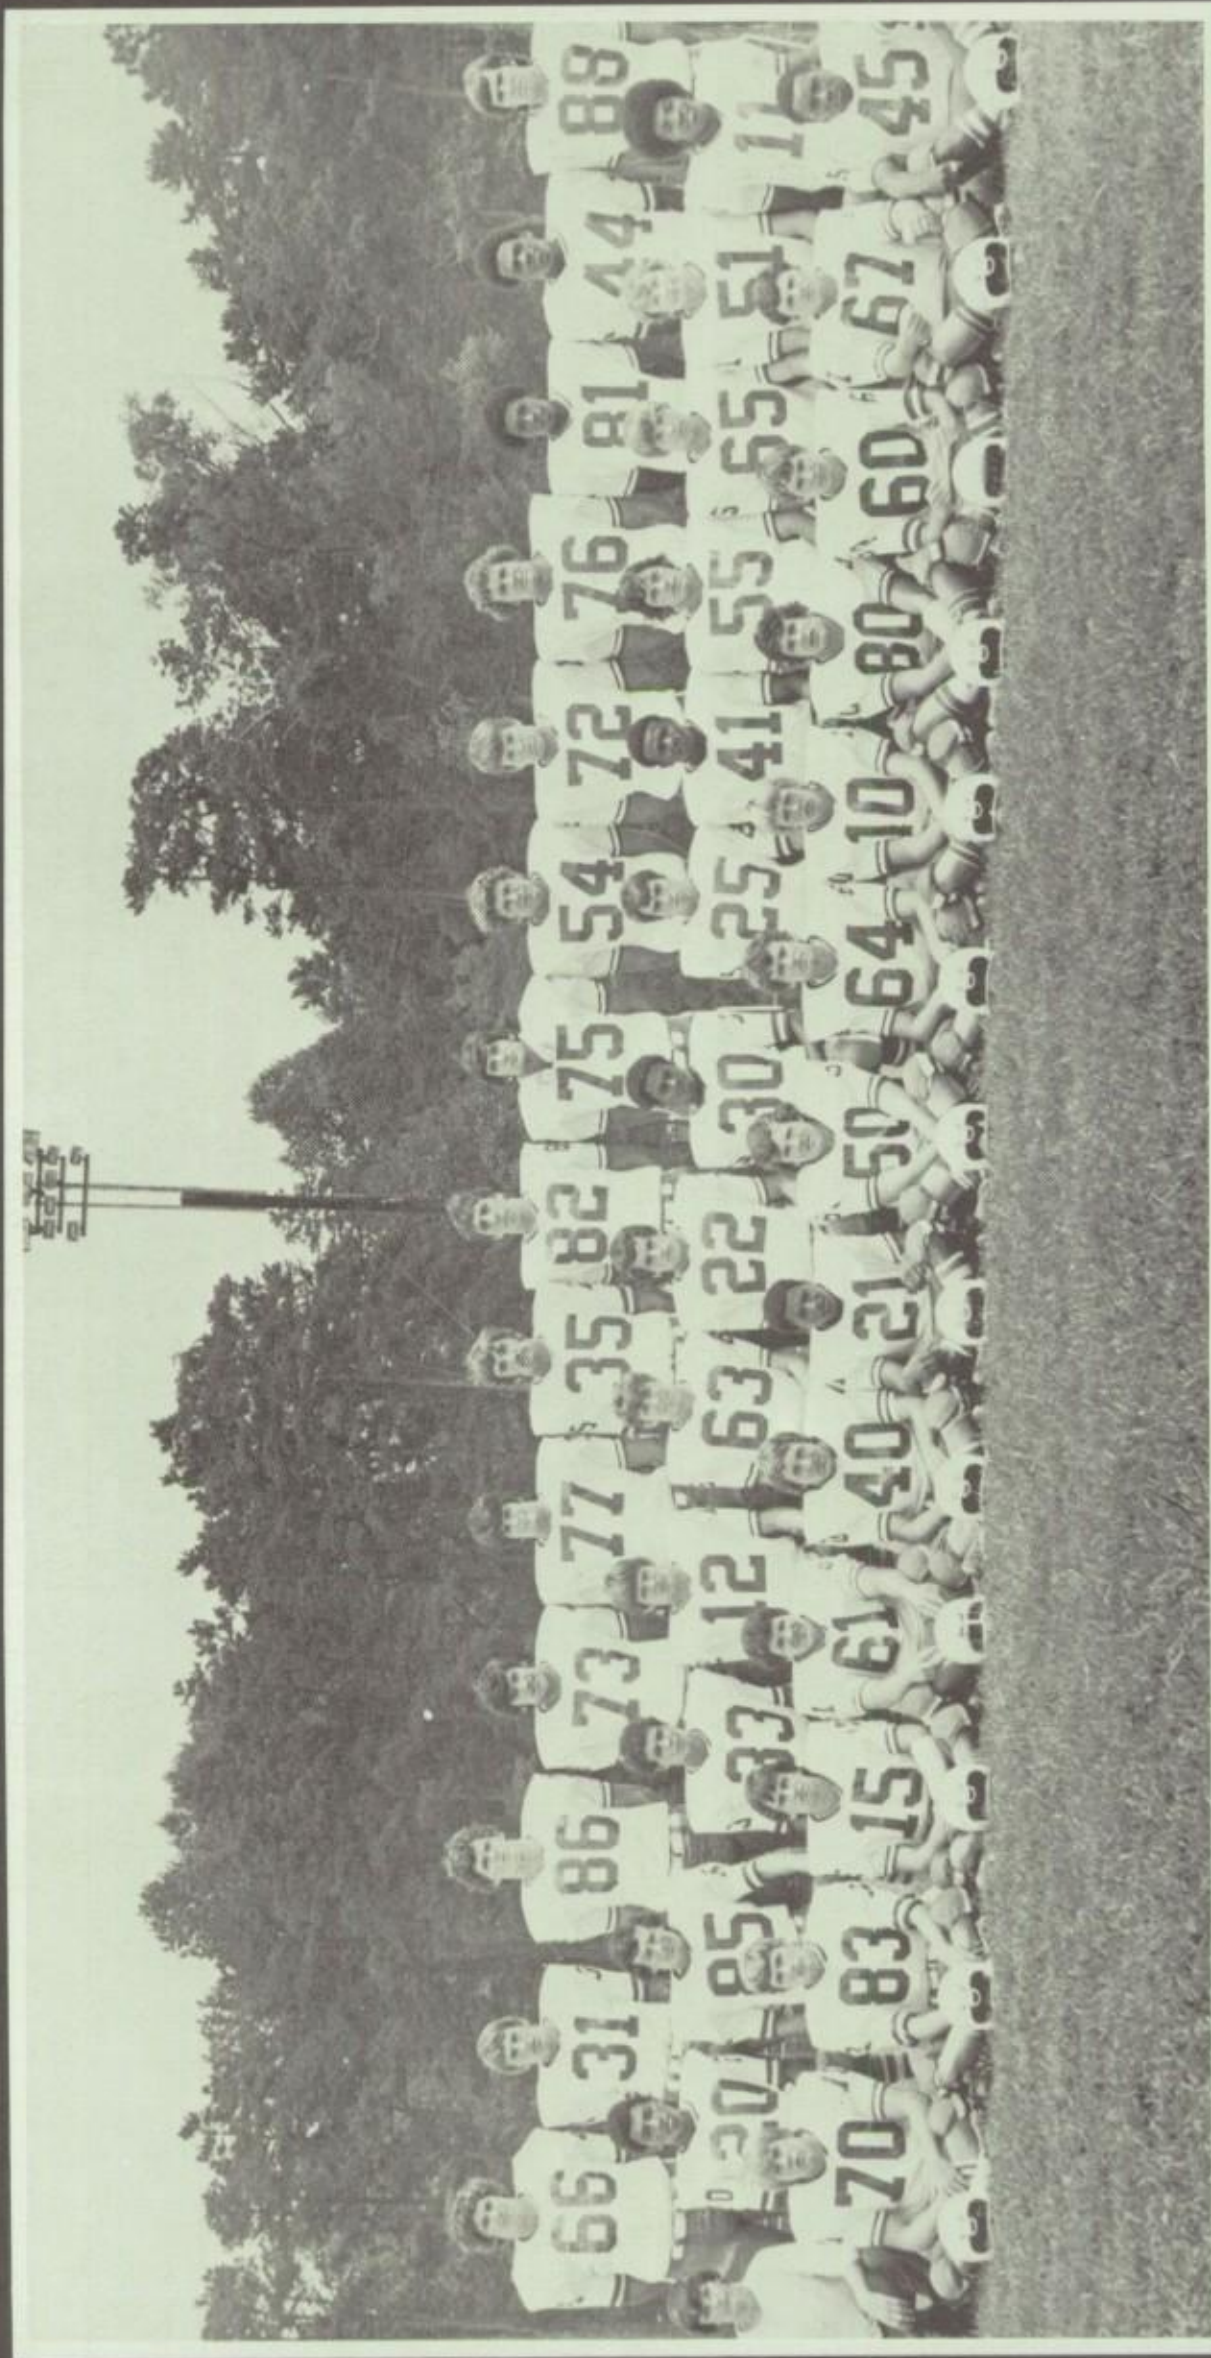

Since COACH RICHARD KEMP arrived at RHS 3 years ago, the football program has taken quite a turnabout. He has directed the Tigers to a 37-2-2 record over those 3 years. Coach Kemp will be leaving Ragsdale this year to join the coaching staff at N.C. State University. He will long be remembered by his players, RHS students, and the people of this community as a talented and unique individual.

Driving the team bus, serving as trainer, and helping build team morale describe some of the jobs of COACH MIKE RAYBON.

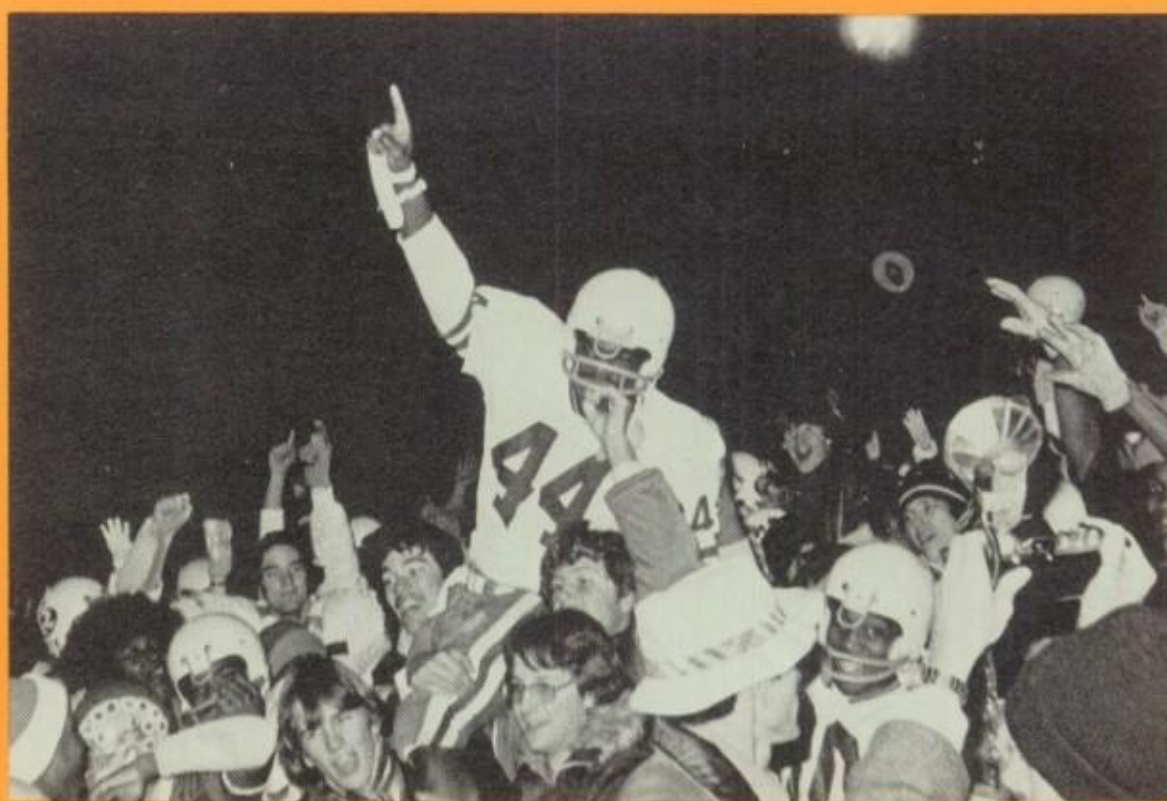

Performing as a peerless technical advisor on the field, COACH JERRY HANEY showed superior insight into the intricacies of the vastly complicated game of football.

Right: Ricky Adams and RHS fans celebrate after the smashing victory over Ahsoskie which did indeed make the Tigers NUMBER 1.

Below: Barry Sikes, with his golden toe, kicks off the season against rival High Point Central. He gave the Tigers a potent kicking game with his booming punts, kick-offs, and extra-points.

Below: Combining a terrific defense with an explosive offense, the Tigers gave none of their opponents a chance of victory. When the defense held their opponents, the offense, directed by QB John Turner, wasted no time in putting points on the board.

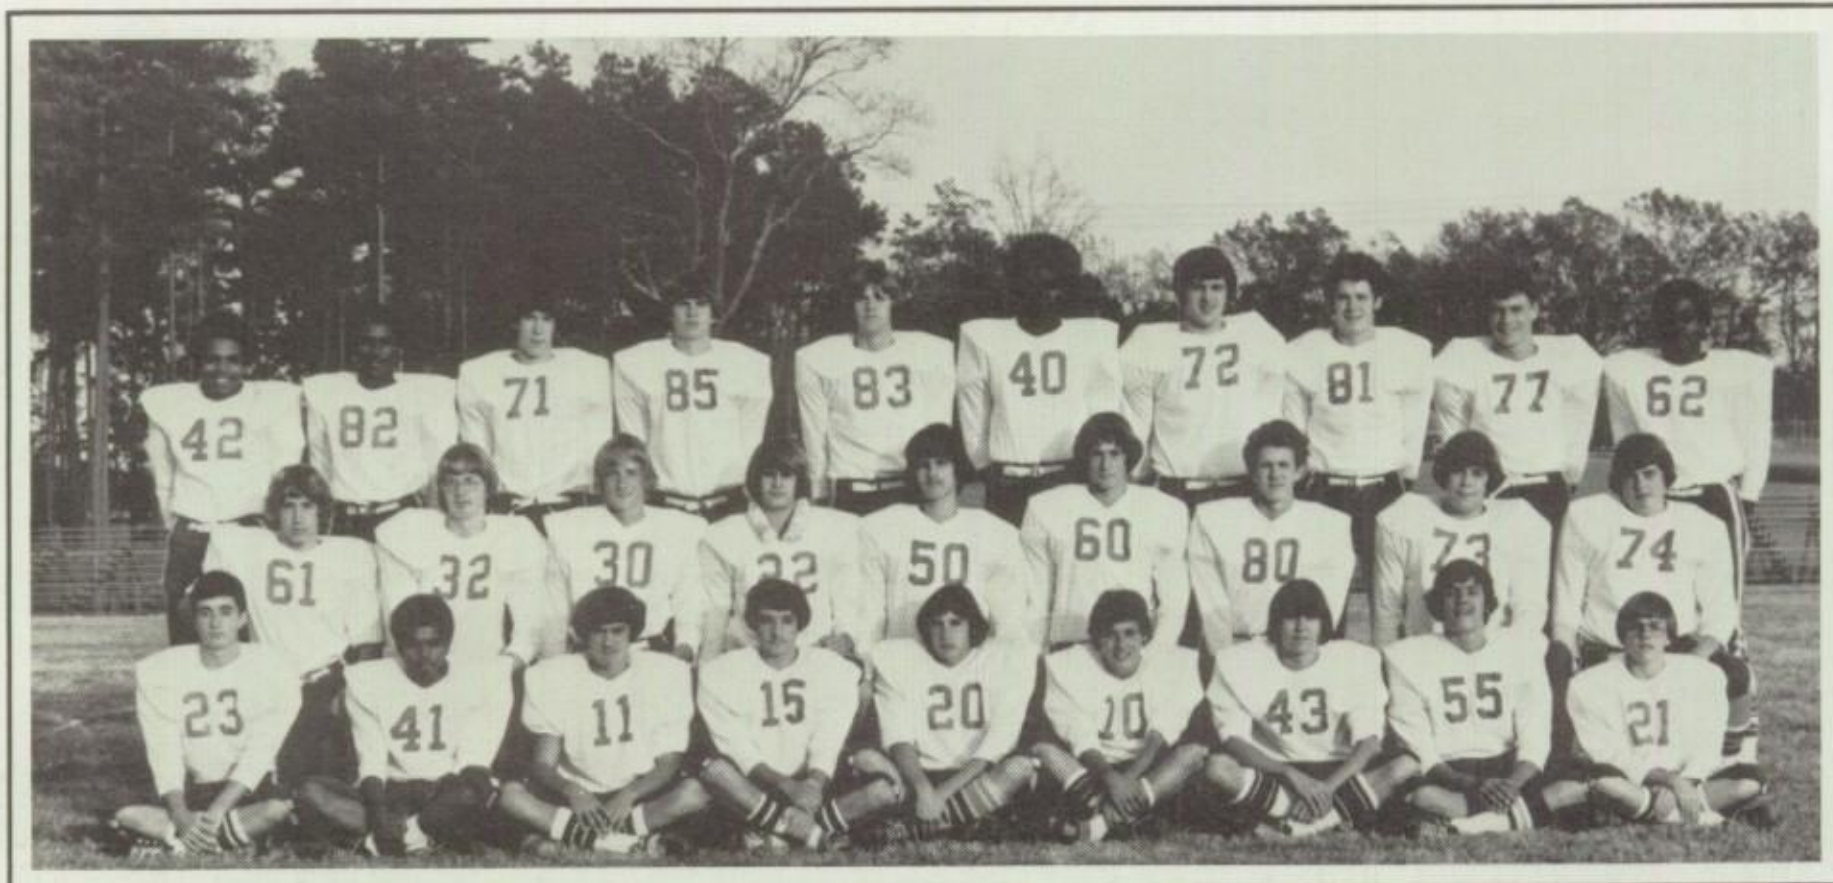

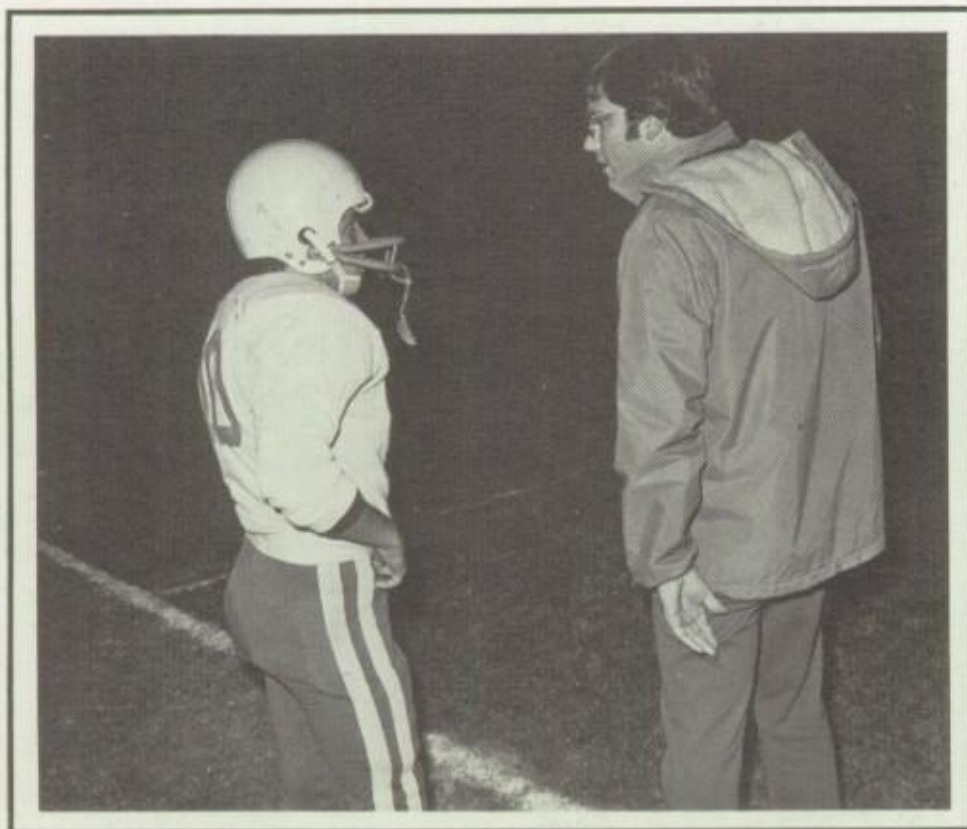

Harold Odum and Ricky Adams were two of the major factors behind this year's team. Ricky climaxed his career by making All-State and the N. C. Shrine Bowl Team.

IN STATE

The 1974-75 Girls' Basketball season was indeed one of success. A well-balanced team of almost equal numbers of sophomores, juniors, and seniors, coupled with the dynamic and able coaching of Judy Flynn, made the impressive 24-2 record possible. Suffering only one loss in regular season play, the RHS Girls repeatedly massacred their opponents, winning by outlandish margins and consequently, earning for themselves a berth in the state play-offs. The Girls triumphed over their first two foes in the play-offs and were robbed of the state championship by only two points.

Gracie Simmons, Vickie McLean, Sharon Wall, and Kadis Hingleton, All-Conference winners, were outstanding players for the Tigers and they were backed by a squad of other dedicated and hardworking girls. The result of the season was something for Ragsdale High School to be proud of — OUR GIRLS BEING THE SECOND GREATEST TEAM IN ALL OF NORTH CAROLINA.

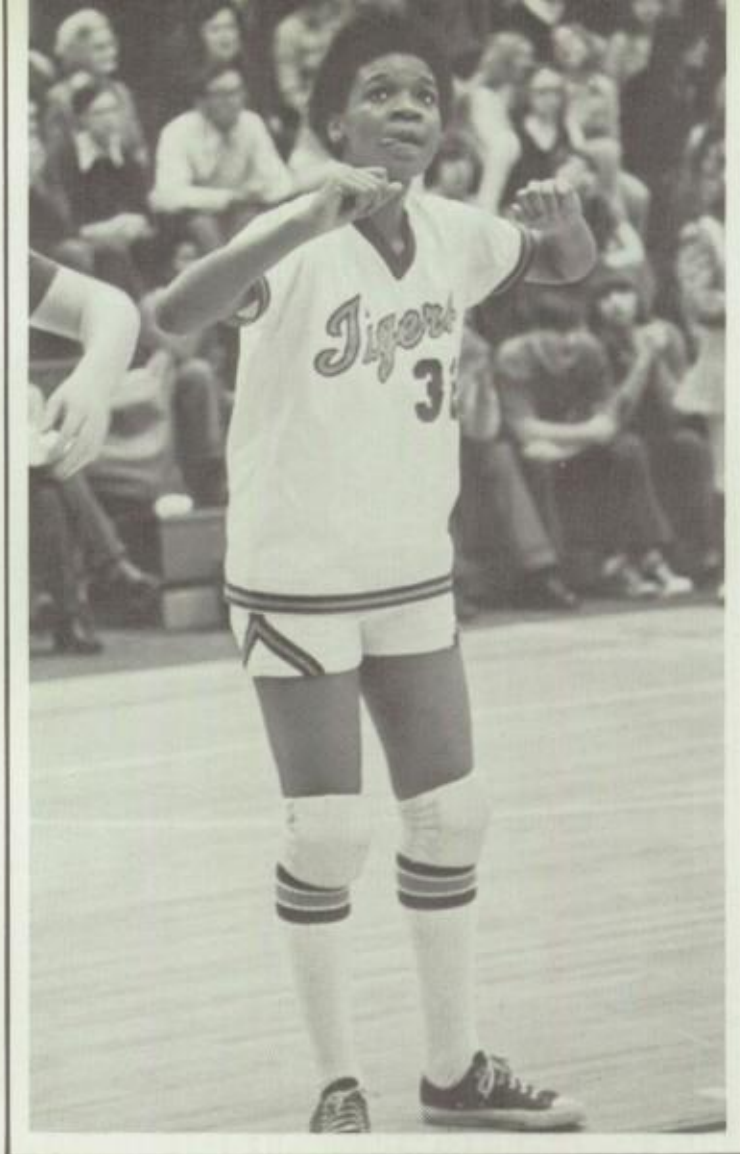

"They say that everything that goes up must come down."

"Did that little bottle just squirt water at us?"

"Somebody tell Miss Flynn to quit biting her nails!"

"Cat got your tongue, Gracie?"

"Ah-h-h-choo!"

RHS BASEBALL:

The Tigers entered the '74 season with high hopes. The fact that they had many returning lettermen coupled with promising newcomers helped fulfill these hopes. After many weeks of hard work, our Tigers opened the season with a victory over 4-A foe Greensboro Grimsley, which started them on their way to the state playoffs. Throughout the regular season, the Tigers gained many victories over Mid-State foes, with few defeats. As a result of a 9-4 victory over Western Guilford in a playoff, the Tigers were Conference champs. Next came the State Playoffs. After experiencing little difficulty in the first three rounds, Ragsdale went into the finals against a superb Charles B. Aycock High School team. The Tigers finished on the short end of the score this time, but still emerged as runners-up in the state 3-A.

SECOND IN NC STATE AAA COMPETITION

Catcher Randy Williard warms up before the game.

Ragsdale combined all the necessary skills in baseball to produce their fine, winning team. The players pictured, Roscoe Friday, Bobby Greene, and Barry Sikes, were just three of the many fine players that made up this great team. Thanks to all of these players, Ragsdale finished the season with the best record in the school's history.

Team spirit is a main part of sports and Ragsdale's team had plenty of it.

The old saying "Practice makes perfect" was appropriate for the RHS girls' and boys' track teams this year. Long hours of "getting it just right" made all the difference in the spring meets. The 1974 girls' relay team performed so well that they won first place in state competition.

Along with much individual talent and great coaching, the warm spring weather added vigor and success to their pace.

THOSE WHO SERVE RAGSDALE

Mr. Olin Jackson purchases tickets from Mrs. Ken Irvin.

The success of Ragsdale's athletic programs can be credited partially to a strong Boosters' Club which provides financial as well as moral support.

RICKY ADAMS, known to all as "Buck-the-Truck", led the Flying Tiger Football team to the State AAA Championship. All those who are acquainted with Ricky know that off the field, as well as on, he is truly an All-American. By also playing on the basketball team and running track, Ricky has shown Ragsdale his all-round ability in sports. The class of '75 and the entire Jamestown community are certainly proud of Ricky for his many achievements.

Bubbling with enthusiasm, Ragsdale has found a truly outstanding Senior in HEIDI BEHREND. Heidi's interest in RHS is clearly shown in her academic record, as well as her extra-curricular activities. She attended Girls' State, served as a Junior Marshal, and chaired the Public Relations Committee in Student Congress. As co-head cheerleader, Heidi has, for three years, spread Tiger spirit throughout the school.

Hard-working, interested, and sincere are words that describe ALAN JOHNSON perfectly. As a member of the Varsity Football and Basketball teams, Alan has shown his fine athletic ability. By his participation in Student Congress, by being elected Senior Class President, or by merely sharing a smile, Alan has made a place for himself at Ragsdale that will long be remembered.

SANDY CROUCH is not only a very attractive young lady, but also a very hard-working one. Sandy, as secretary of Student Congress and Maid-of-Honor of the homecoming court, has certainly shown that she is indeed an Outstanding Senior. Sandy is one young lady whose leadership and beauty will be missed upon her graduation from RHS.

Unique—! a word that is typically JOEL JOHNSTON. Readily accepted into the Ragsdale community, Joel's academic achievements were signified by his selection as a Junior Marshal. Throughout his stay at RHS, Joel has maintained a distinct individuality and become one of the truly memorable members of the Class of '75.

This year's homecoming queen is also this year's head cheerleader. JEANNIE GURLEY, the recipient of both of these honors, is an excellent example of an Outstanding Senior. Jeannie's vibrant personality coupled with a real interest in Ragsdale have made her an all-around favorite with not only the seniors, but also with the underclassmen. Everyone will remember for years to come the beauty and vitality that Jeannie brought to RHS.

"Hey! How's it going?" is a common phrase heard in the halls of RHS.
The speaker — JIM OLSON — always makes time for others despite his busy schedule. As Vice President of the Senior Class, President of the French Club, Chairman of the Grievance Committee, and a vital member of the tennis team, Jim has shown his interest in Ragsdale through his talent for leadership.

KAREN HALL, one of the Outstanding Seniors of this year, has received many honors — among them the opportunity to attend Girls' State, acting as a Junior Marshal and the DAR Good Citizen award. You can't miss her.
She's always there with a laugh, a wild gesture and at least a smile. Karen's bright face has brought many sunny days to the people of RHS.

Cone — Champion of the casual way of life since 1895. We first made our mark in denim, and soon became America's leading manufacturer of this comfortable fabric. Next came Cone corduroy, an equal winner. Today the 25 plants of Cone Mills Corporation create and finish a whole line-up of fabrics for casualwear, sportswear, sleepwear, uniforms, and career apparel. Home furnishings and home sewing fabrics, towels, bedspreads—even dyestuffs and polyurethane foam are now part of our family of products. The 14,500 employees of Cone Mills Corporation are proud of their part in creating basic fabrics that are the backbone of American fashion.

Cone

Would you like to be a part of the Cone team? Contact us at any of our plant locations in the following communities:

Cliffside, Forest City, Gibsonville, Greensboro, Haw River, Henrietta, Hillsborough, Pineville, Reidsville, Salisbury, North Carolina; Carlisle, Cheraw, Greenville, Walhalla, South Carolina.

Cone makes fabrics people live in.™

CONE MILLS CORPORATION, HOME OFFICE: GREENSBORO, N.C.

Established in 1897

Sechrest Funeral Home is unexcelled in the South for modern design and facilities. Located in the part-like setting of 4½ acres. Paved and lighted parking for 200 cars. Spacious chapel seats over 200.

Sechrest Service has been described as "excellence based on experience." And it is true that since 1897 our constant ideal has been that through reverence, tenderness, and beauty in final rites, every funeral shall clearly express a family's deepest love for a departed one. Whether arrangements are for a modest or elaborate ceremony, Sechrest creates an impressive and long-remembered tribute, complete in every detail and within every family's means.

I am a part of all that I have met;
Yet all experience is an arch where thro'
Gleams that untravell'd world, whose margin fades
For ever and for ever when I move.
Tennyson

Much appreciation is expressed to everyone who has made contributions to the publication of this yearbook. Special thanks go to the senior editors of the Echo staff; Mr. Whitey Boswell, Mrs. Lorene Fairfax and Mr. Tom Smith of Delmar; Karen Hall, business manager; Mr. Dennis Carroll, assistant advisor; but most of all to Mrs. Vicki Norman for her enthusiasm and the many hours of time she put into the making of this 1975 Echo.
